

Experience the Love You Already Are

An Afternoon of Family Constellations

Are you stuck in your relationships with your significant other, children, parents, money, work, identity, and/or addictions?

Is there something way deep down you've been struggling with and can't seem to let go of?

Take this deep journey down to the soul of your family where unconscious, unwanted soul agreements have been lurking without your knowledge.

When you realize these soul-agreements, you also feel the depth of unconditional love from which they were made.

With the energy of your ancestors present you will be able to create new and conscious agreements.
